

GBRA Parks Remain Closed

GBRA parks, including Coleta Creek, Lake Wood, and Nolte Island will remain closed at this time to allow GBRA to review the governor's executive order to assess requirements for reopening parks to ensure the safety of guests and staff. Additionally, local county orders remain in place and are set to expire at the end of April. Updates will be posted on GBRA's website and social media platforms.